

Phoenix Convention Center & Venues Fact Sheet

Name: Phoenix Convention Center & Venues

Address: 100 N. Third Street, Phoenix, Arizona 85004

Ownership: The Phoenix Convention Center is a City of Phoenix department. The department also owns and operates Symphony Hall and the historic Orpheum Theatre.

Economic Impact: An estimated $300 million in annual economic benefit from conventions.

Facility: Phoenix Convention Center - Opened its doors on September 28, 1972

	1972	2022
Name:	Phoenix Civic Plaza	Phoenix Convention Center & Venues
Square Feet:	120,000	Nearly 1mil of rentable and outdoor space
Meeting Rooms:	20	99
No. of Building	1	3

Symphony Hall - Opened its doors on September 29, 1972 (day after Phoenix Civic Plaza)

- 2,312-seat multipurpose theatre
- State-of-the-art lighting fixtures, audio, and video equipment
- Outdoor plaza with ancillary space
- Resident companies — Arizona Opera, Ballet Arizona, The Phoenix Symphony

Notable Events:

- 1972 — First client in former Civic Plaza — Greenband Enterprise Boat Show
- 1996 — Super Bowl XXX Media Headquarters
- 2006 — First client in West Building (Capella University)
- 2008 — Super Bowl XLII Media Headquarters
- 2009 — First clients in North Building (USA Imaging and the American Meteorological Society)
- 2009 — Largest convention (National Rifle Association; 63,000 delegates)
- 2009 — U.S. Greenbuild Conference
- 2009 — NBA All-Star Jam Session
- 2010 — WWE Fan Axxess
- 2011 — MLB All-Star Fan Fest
- 2015 — Super Bowl XLIX NFL Experience and Media Headquarters
- 2017 — NCAA Men's Final Four Fan Fest
- 2019 — WWE Royal Rumble Fan Axxess
- 2023 — Coming Soon Super Bowl LVII Fan Experience
- 2024 — Coming Soon NCAA Men's Final Four Fan Fest coming soon
- 2026 — Coming Soon NCAA Women's Final Four Fan Fest coming soon

Service Providers:

- Ace Parking — parking service provider
- AV Concepts — audiovisual service provider
- Aventura Catering — food service provider
- Commonwealth Electric Company — utilities service provider
- Etix — web-based ticketing service provider
- Smart City Networks — technology and telecommunications service provider

100 NORTH 3RD STREET, PHOENIX,
ARIZONA 85004

800.282.4842 | 602.262.6225

PHOENIXCONVENTIONCENTER.COM